Dear Sir:

The American Journal of Numismatics during the 50 odd years of its existence has been published by various organizations. Our Society issued it for a number of years until its discontinuance a few years ago. We have for sale complete sets, unbound, at $130, and many volumes at $2.00 and $5.00 each. We also have several sets which are partially bound in different styles. We can quote prices on these if you are interested.

The coin books that you want are rather hard to find and bring quite a little money. I would advise you to write to Guttag Brothers, 16 Exchange Place, or to Mr. Wayte Raymond, 489 Park Avenue, who at times have copies of these books.

If you desire the Journal, kindly communicate with us.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Sir:

In the absence of Mr. Wood, who is ill and who may not return for a week or ten days, I am answering one of the queries in your letter of August 29th.

The meaning of the word Fugio is 'I fly'. It refers of course to the sun-dial and implies 'time flies'.

The best book on Hard Times Tokens is by Mr. Low. It is now out of print and not easy to obtain. You might write to Mr. Wayte Raymond, 489 Park Avenue, this city, although I doubt that he or any other dealer has a copy for sale.

Regretting that I am unable to give you more satisfactory information, I am

Very cordially yours,

Secretary

Mr. Howland Wood:

Dear Sir:

I'm enclosing two types of coin envelopes one of bond and the other of manila paper and would like your opinion as to which would have the least tendency to cause coloration, tainting or deposit of residue on brilliant uncirculated or proof coins. Also the enclosed paper, would it be suitable to wrap unc or proof coins in or will too stiff or undesirable in any way. Thanking you in advance for your expert opinion.

Yours Truly

Dear Sir:

As we have never kept our coins in envelopes, nor wrapped up in paper, I cannot advise you as to whether the envelopes and paper you submitted would tarnish coins or not. This is really a matter for a chemist. William Hesslein, 101 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., claims to have a non-tarnishing paper and envelope, but all I know about it is that he says. I am returning your samples.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
